Leroy:

I think you guys are beyond the period of performance for this Task Order.

Also, Steve has been documenting "Reconcile to JDEdwards" on a significant portion of his backup supporting the hours he is charging which is a significant amount of time. First of all, who is JDEdwards? Secondly, How difficult of a task is this to conduct with so many hours charged to this? Finally, we are going on 6 months (December 20) since we completed the action on the stie. This is an unacceptable amount of time to close out this project. In fact, there is nothing that appears to show progress on this 1900-55 as there remains significant pendings listed. I do not see any progress so I don't know why I should approve this 1900-55. I am extremely disappointed in the lack of progress.

Thanks
